

No further copyright protection should be mandated. Large corporations are abusing there position in mass media and this abuse must be put to an end. Individual rights must take precedence over the desire of a select few to maximise there profit margin.....No DRM (Digital Rights Management) No Digital Television copyright protection